

Abstracting/Extending

Self Assessment Checklist for student self-assessment for Abstracting (Grades K-2)

Abstracting is the process of finding and explaining general patterns in specific information or situations.

A. I find the important information.

- ☐ Yes. I find the important information.
☐ No. I do very little to find the important information.

B. I find the pattern in the information. I describe it in a general way.

- ☐ Yes. I find the pattern in the information. I describe it in a general way.
☐ No. I do very little to find the pattern in the information. I do very little to describe it in a general way.

C. I find an example in which the pattern is the same.

- ☐ Yes. I find an example in which the pattern is the same.
☐ No. I do very little to find an example in which the pattern is the same.

Adapted from McREL Institute